SONG—"THE BACHELOR'S CHOICE"

Oh, the girl that I love,
Must be mild as a dove,
Her face must be wondrously fair;
And her eyes must be blue,
Of a heavenly hue;

With bits of spun gold in her hair.

Oh, the girl I adore

Must be twenty—no more,
With figure of beauty and grace.

Oh, her skin must be bright,

And her teeth must be white—

The tints of the dawn in her face.

The maid that I cherish,
To love till I perish,

Must love me in sunshine and snow;

Must be laughing and gay,

Let me have my own way,

And know how to cook and to sew.

But the maid that I wed,

After all I have said,

May break my fond dreams quite to smash;

Though I'll feel quite repaid

If I get an old maid

With millions of dollars in cash.

—Judge.

PRESIDENT TAFT deplores "the law's delay," and the miscarriage of justice throughout the land. The prostitution of the law by those who pervert its intent is the cardinal crime of the age. The flagrant miscarriage of Justice is what breeds socialism, unrest and anarchy. When men cannot stand equal before the law they will naturally seek redress in some form because the instinct of Justice and self defense is so strong that humanity will never submit to tyranny in any shape. Injustice is the worst of tyranny and the modern interpretation of our laws, to suit the man and the concern that has money to clog the wheels of Justice, is a threatening and an increasing danger to our boasted civil liberty and equality.

He is a son of the late Henry E. Pogue, and when a young man entered the Presbyterian Ministry. His health giving away and a temporary paralysis of his voice resulting, he resigned from the Ministry.

He was later chosen Vice President of the Sheldon School in New York where he has been drawing a salary for eight years of $15,000 annually.

His advance in the business world has been demonstrated by his having been chosen on the Board of this great new corporation, in which Eugene Zimmerman and many New York and Ohio capitalists are interested.

CHRISTMAS HAPPENINGS

In and About Town—A Little of This and a Little of That

Maysville merchants are well satisfied with their holiday trade, and as a rule report a larger and better trade than that of last year. Conditions were decidedly more favorable, however, than in 1908. Our merchants had provided immense and varied lines of goods from which to make a selection, and on the other hand farmers were never more prosperous than they are today and had the money to spend, and they did it, too.

Friday was an ideal day and the city was full of out-of-town buyers. The crowd was variously estimated from three thousand to thirty-five hundred. It was certainly the largest buying crowd seen in this city in years. The livery stables had all they could do in taking care of horses and vehicles, while the two railroads did an enormous passenger business in bringing them here.

It is said that during the busy hours Saturday afternoon at Thomas' wholesale liquor house, a slick individual exchanged a $2 bill raised to $20 for a quart of whisky and $18 in good United States money.

Samuel Mackey, aged about 50, hailing from Cabin Creek, claimed to have been held up by two colored men Friday night above Lime-stone creek along the C. and O. track, and after being knocked down was relieved of a wallet containing $10.

Saturday night between 1 and 2 o'clock, William Boone, the hot tamale man, was assaulted on J. J. Wood & Son's corner by five drunken rowdies and beat up in a fearful manner, besides receiving several slight knife wounds. It is said his clothing was cut into ribbons.

It was a white Christmas after all, and the merry jingle of the sleigh bell and the shout of the gladsome coasters was music to the ear of the old stager and recalled back happy days of the long ago, when he, too, enjoyed the sport.

It is a happy coincidence that Christmas and the birthday anniversary of H. B. Saturday this popular host marked his fifty-fourth milestone in life's rugged journey, and in observance of the occasion his guests were regaled with a feast that old Epicurus would have enjoyed with pleasureable delight and self satisfaction. May he and his good wife live to see many returns of the day and health and prosperity attend them.

COLONEL J. PERRY FYFFE

"Man From Maysville" New Chief of Panama Canal Zone Police—
Brief Sketch of a Notable Soldier

A Washington dispatch says Secretary Dickinson has decided to appoint J. P. Fyffe of Chattanooga, Tenn., Chief of the Panama Canal Zone Police, to succeed Gilbert Porter. The salary is $4,000.

Colonel J. P. Fyffe is a native of Maysville and was born about 45 years ago in the dwelling now occupied by Captain Thomas A. Davis in Court street, his father being Colonel John P. Fyffe and his mother, Mrs. Willa Fyffe, well known here, the latter being a member of the pioneer McFord family.

He has been a resident of Chattanooga for twenty-one years.

He is a graduate of the law school of the Cincinnati University, of which President Taft was one of the instructors, and also an alumnus of Kentucky University. He was a member of the Kentucky State Guard for eight years and served through all the Eastern Kentucky field campaigns, including Rowan and Breathitt county wars.

He has been an officer in the Tennessee National Guard since 1888, holding every grade of office in that organization.

During the Coal Creek riots he was two years in the field with the State Troops, being in command at the time of Fort Anderson, with a garrison of 100 men, and was for two days assaulted by an army of 3,000 men, which for the time aroused the entire South.

During the Spanish-American War he was the senior officer from Tennessee, being Colonel of the Third Infantry.

Colonel Fyffe has commanded the Tennessee Cavalry for the past eight years until he was succeeded lately by Major W. J. Bass, and probably his best piece of military work was with that organization when he put an end to the mining disturbances in Sequatchie Valley, making peace between the warring factions to the satisfaction of all concerned and with less expense to the State than any similar campaign.

After the Coal Creek campaign Colonel Fyffe joined the ranks of the newspaper profession and has for the past fifteen years been connected with Chattanooga papers in an editorial capacity, the greater portion of the time being with The Chattanooga News. He is at present City Editor of The News.

GOOD SHOWING

Over 200 Dairy Cows Examined and Only 9 Found Tainted

The following letter is self-explanatory and is of interest to milk consumers:

MAYSVILLE, KY., Dec. 25th, 1909.
Dr. H. K. Adamson, Health Officer Mason County, Kentucky—Dear Doctor: I respectfully submit my report to you as regards the tuberculin test of the following herds of dairy cows selling milk in Maysville, Ky.:

1—5 cows for James Yancey, Mt. Sterling pike; free from tuberculosis.

2—5 cows for John Chambers, same pike; free from tuberculosis.

3—11 cows for John Coughlin, Hill City pike; free from tuberculosis.

4—3 cows for Charles Newdigate, same pike; free from tuberculosis.

5—69 cows for A. L. Glascott, Hill City pike.

6—1 cow for James Wallace, Lexington pike; free from tuberculosis.

7—25 cows for J. R. Davis, Mt. Sterling pike.

8—1 cow for James Downey, city; free from tuberculosis.

I respectfully suggest that the tuberculin test, now isolated, be disposed of as required by law.

In conclusion, I wish to state that, generally speaking, the sanitary conditions of the above dairies are good and the progressive spirit of the above owners of dairy cattle is worthy of special mention. The consumers of Maysville ought to pay an adequate price for such high-class, nutritious milk, the present price being no incentive to the dairyman to produce a high-class milk. The consuming public is not indifferent, but they do not realize the fact that Maysville is getting a milk from cows of greater money value than almost anywhere in our State. The honorable Fiscal Court ought to investigate the losses and expenses these public-spirited dairymen have had and, if possible, aid them in meeting these losses.

I further suggest that all producers of dairy products be acquainted with the ruling of the State Board of Health as regards the testing of the dairy cattle, and furthermore it is recommended that this ruling be rigidly enforced.

We wish to extend our most sincere thanks to you, Dr. Adamson, for the fearless stand you have taken in this matter, as well as the decidedly unselfish efforts made by Dr. B. P. Phillips in assisting in the above tests. Very respectfully,

W. E. A. WYMAN,

THIRD STREET DRUG STORE.

Tobacco Growers, Attention!

Although the recent cold snap curtailed the receipts somewhat, yet the Farmers' House disposes of almost 300,000 pounds leaf tobacco for week ending December 11th, 1909. The market showed marked strength, especially on the low grades. The better ones also made improvement. The average for the week shows 1c per pound better than last. The desire on the part of the buyers for tobacco made the sales very active and the bidding spirited. Some prices obtained for the week:

R. T. Hord—9c, 14c, 15c, 16c. W. M. Sammons—13c, 14c, 16c, 18c, 20c.
A. S. Baxter—10c, 12c, 15c, 16c, 18c. James Hensley—12c, 14c, 15c, 17c.

SPRINGDALE.

Profound sorrow is expressed on every hand at the untimely passing of the honored and beloved Mr. John Duley. Not since the days of the late lamented Henry Barkley has a citizen of Maysville so endeared himself to the country people in this end of the county as did Mr. Duley. His kindly, courteous greeting, always full of hope and cheer, was such as to make glad the heart of the despondent or disengaged one. Even his business visits among the country people when there were little children in the home are remembered as a sunbeam in a darkened room and his picture scattered broadcast during Maysville's Home Coming, the success of which was largely due to his untiring efforts, are among the valued keep-sakes in many a collection. We feel that Maysville and the county have lost a citizen that was equalled by few and surpassed by none.

Martin Alexander, one of our worthy colored citizens, is improving his residence by the addition of a new front.

Elder Miley of Lexington will begin his year's work with the Christian Church here the first Sunday in January, 1910.

The members of the Christian Church of this place are not only much disappointed, but really dismayed, at the result of their earnest and zealous efforts to erect a new house of worship. The building, begun early in June, is not yet completed, and is a mistake from foundation to roof and has been pronounced unsafe by two of the foremost architects in Maysville; therefore, the Building Committee has been forced to condemn the structure as not according to contract. We hope, however, that the brethren will soon be able to compete with the difficulty and bring matters to a satisfactory conclusion.

Winchester may get a Bible School.

~~For~~ Sure death to rats and mice, Hobson's Rat Paste, 25c at Sallie S. Wood Drugstore.

Saturday night about 10:30 o'clock an unfortunate killing took place at Tollesboro, in which Tom Applegate was almost instantly killed by Thomas Beckett. It is said Applegate, while under the influence of liquor, assaulted Beckett with a knife in his own home and the latter shot him in self defense. Applegate is about 25 years old, while Beckett is a man of 70 years.

Tramps over on the Pennsylvania Railroad are of different character from those who peopled the houses along the C. & O. Recently near Spring Valley a party of journeymen discovered a broken rail in the Pennsylvania tracks. They immediately built a large fire along the track and stood guard, while one of them went on to the Spring Valley Station where notification was sent to the railroad headquarters.

NATURE'S WARNING.

Maysville People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously. But nature always warns you. Notice the kidney secretions. See if the color is unhealthy—If there are settling and sediment.

Passages frequent, scanty, painful. It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills, To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in this locality. James W. Cottingham, East Second street, Vanceburg, Ky., says:

"About two years ago my back became lame and I had almost constant pain across my loins. It was all I could do to drag one foot after another and I was actually too weak to work. The kidney secretions were scanty and I had a difficulty in passing them. I was laid up at one time for a month and could not leave the house. When Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me, I procured a box and began their use. My kidneys were soon restored to their normal condition, I became strong and have had no trouble since. It gives me the greatest pleasure to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other persons suffering from kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DARK DAYS and LIGHT NIGHTS!

The "melancholy days" may be here, but, thanks to modern illumination, they are more than offset by the joyous nights. Darkness now is only a setting which brings out more strongly by contrast the glories of light. If the day gets too gloomy, we turn a switch or pull a cord and instantly our office, home or store becomes as brilliant as June sunshine. : : : :
